

I am not in favor of allowing the members of the American Banking Association (ABA), or for that matter, other than those currently allowed, any telemarketing program. I urge you to deny any petitions presented that would be nuisance to the public.